Connie became active in youth group, youth choir, Young Life and Campaigners (Bible study), as well as leading Young Life in college.

As a lifelong follower of Christ, Connie has led and participated in many ladies Bible studies, Sunday School classes, young couple/marriage/parenting life small groups, etc. She was assistant to Pastor Robbie Hendrick for several years at Christ Presbyterian Church, Nashville. A native Nashvillian, her husband Mark and she now reside in beautiful Cleveland, Tennessee, after a 10-year stint in Houston, Texas. American Heritage Girls

We welcomed back our girls and added new members to each age range at our kickoff meeting in August. Our fall is packed with all kinds of fun, learning, adventure, and service projects. Faye Robeson, our Troop Shepherd, will be sharing devotions based on Psalm 23 at our weekly meetings. The Lord has answered our prayer for leaders for our Pathfinders and Explorers, and we are thankful for that; however, we are still in need of one more volunteer to work with our 9–12 year-old girls. If you are interested in volunteering or would like more information on our troop, contact Laura Doss at adamandlaura@bellsouth.net

Missions Moment

Steve & Kellie – In Harm's Way Asia

Since 2005, we have been laboring on college campuses and working for shalom in the city. I am the City Director in our place of residence and balance my time teaching, team leading, and looking for creative ways to bless the city and her people. The Majority of Kellie's time each week is spent investing in our four children's education. Her strength is the reason we have been able to labor as long as we have overseas.

As I write this, we are unsure of where God will have us labor next year. The school where I have taught for the last ten years is closing its English Department, eliminating their need for foreign English teachers. We would prefer not to move away from the city we have labored in for the past decade, but from the beginning our city hasn't been an easy place to find teaching positions so it doesn't look very promising that we might stay here. Our organization has offered another leadership position in a different part of the country, as well as made known to us leadership needs in other countries of service. All options are on the table at this point.

Furthermore, the political climate in our country, which has never been favorable toward our worldview, has intensified its pressure to bring all things under its control. Quite often we are hearing stories of foreigners of all nationalities, not just Americans, suddenly being asked to leave. Most of these occurrences are in more sensitive areas, but they are now beginning to happen in our own city. The message the authorities are trying to send is clear: no one is safe.

That, of course, is completely false. We are forever safe in His hands and daily comforted with his ever—with—us presence. The new climate has strengthened our resolve to continue our work with thankfulness for the time we have been given, however long or short that may be.

Ministry through Music

All music ensembles have resumed rehearsals. We will soon begin to rehearse our Christmas music. If you are interested in joining our choir, there will be a Visit the Choir night on Wednesday, September 4, at 7:15 p.m. in the Sanctuary. We'd love to have you share your voice. Contact Stan Pylant for more information: spylant@christchurchpres.org or 706–210–9090.

The Augusta Youth Chorale is off an running. We currently have 23 voices! (Auditions are still being accepted.) Our fall schedule consists of singing with the Enopion Theater on November 2 for their Autumn Harvest Festival, and our annual Christmas Dessert Concert will be December 1 at 4:15 p.m. here at Christ Church. For more information, visit www.augustayouthchorale.org.

"It is not the sound of shouting for victory,
or the sound of the cry of defeat,
but the sound of singing that I hear." Exodus 32:18

Trail Life Trek

In July, Trail Life Troop GA-2215 experienced outdoor adventure with over 300 other Trailmen from across the country at the Trail Life National Summer Adventure in Toccoa, GA. The daily focus was "What does it take to become a man?" Warrior Clinics were enjoyed by all, along with afternoons filled with challenges: Olympics, Highland games, Ultimate Warrior Race, and archery tag among other activities.

Although our Join the Trail informational night was held in August, boys can continue to join the troop. We meet on Monday nights at 7:00 p.m. in the church fellowship hall. Contact John Norkus for more information: 706–373–2173.
