Trail Life Trek

Adventure. Character. Leadership. Trail Life Troop GA-2215 has been experiencing plenty of these traits over the last few weeks.

Adventure: The Grizzly patrol paddled 7 miles from the Thurmond Dam to Betty's Branch boat ramp. Then, the entire troop had a shooting sports day on the church campus with slingshots, archery, tomahawks, and bb guns.

Leadership. The troop has just elected its new youth leadership: Will Lumley (First Officer), Joshua Doss (Second officer) and Logan Kubicz (Quartermaster).

Character. One of our new Trail Life moms shared the following on a Facebook post (with permission):

Since C just turned 5, he and Colby (dad) joined Trail Life. He's only been a few times, but he's already saying things like, "Penny (sister), I can't do that; I have to listen to Mama and walk worthy!" ☑️ "Walk Worthy" is the TL motto from Colossians 1:10. I'm so thankful for godly community for him! #fiveyearsold #trailife #walkworthy #letboysbeboys

The troop has seen phenomenal growth since our Hit the Trail night with over 50 trailmen registered. You can help by:

1. Praying for our troop.
2. Giving. With this growth we will need to invest in additional camping gear.
3. Serving. You don't have to camp or sleep on the ground to help with Trail Life. We have many administrative tasks where your help would benefit our troop committee.

Missions Moment

Praying for Missionaries

At Christ Church, we have always pursued proclaiming the gospel in our area of influence, in our city, state, country and to the uttermost parts of the world. The ways in which we pursue Christ's calling of making disciples of all the nations is: sending, giving, and praying. In praying we sometimes receive prayer letters to help us know what to pray for and why. If we don't have specifics for prayer, there are always constant issues and circumstantial issues that we can accurately bring to the Lord as we pray for our missionaries. Here are some ways to pray for our missionaries:

Constant Issues – that are always necessary

- ⇒ Courage/Boldness – Ephesians 6:19-20 "and on my behalf, that utterance may be given unto me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak."
- ⇒ Open Doors – Colossian 4:2-3 "Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; withal praying for us also, that God may open unto us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds; that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak."
- ⇒ Strength – Psalm 28:7 "Jehovah is my strength and my shield; my heart hath trusted in Him, and I am helped: Therefore, my heart greatly rejoices; and with my song will I praise Him."
- ⇒ Refreshment – Matthew 11:28-30 "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."
- ⇒ Effective Ministry – John 15:5 "I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abides in Me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from Me ye can do nothing."
- ⇒ Protection – 2 Thessalonians 3:2 "that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for all have not faith."
- ⇒ Spread of God's Word – 2 Thessalonians 3:1 "Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with you."

Circumstantial Issues – that are often changing

- ⇒ Personal and Family Health
- ⇒ Education of self and family
- ⇒ Ministry opportunities
- ⇒ Travel
- ⇒ Relationships
- ⇒ Support

Operation Christmas Child

Samaritan's Purse began with the mission to spread the love of God throughout the world by collecting shoeboxes filled with Christmas presents and delivering them to children in impoverished countries. Since 1993 Operation Christmas Child has delivered gift-filled shoeboxes to over 168 million children in more than 100 countries! These gifts have made it possible to share the gospel in some of the darkest corners of the world.

A small shoebox can teach a child about the love of God, lead him to faith in Christ, inspire pastors, and plant new churches. What goes into the box is fun, but what comes out is eternal. Many children who receive these shoeboxes are also invited to attend a 12-week follow-up discipleship program, The Greatest Journey. Here they learn more about what it means to follow Jesus and walk with Him for a life time, as well as how to share their faith. Receiving a New Testament at graduation, they are equipped to grow and bear fruit for Christ's Kingdom.

It is our privilege again this year to participate in the Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Project. People of all ages can be involved in this simple, hands-on mission project while focusing on the true meaning of Christmas—Jesus Christ. Brochures with complete instructions on filling the boxes and pre-wrapped empty shoeboxes will be available in the foyer beginning October 27. Filled shoeboxes will be collected on November 3, 10, and 17. Let's all take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to celebrate the true meaning of Christmas. If you have any questions, please contact Ruth Ann Fliermans (706-738-8259).

The faithful love of the LORD never ends! His mercies never cease. Great is His faithfulness; His mercies begin afresh each morning." (Lam 3:22-23 NLT)
