The Pastoral Prayer..... Dr. Eyrich

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

† The Confession of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell;
the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic* Church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen. (*universal)

HOPE FOR DISTRESSED HEARTS: OUR MENTOR THE PSALMIST

Psalm 73

Introduction

- I. Our Mentor's Distress
- II. Our Mentor's Thinking Uninformed
 - A. Divine calling is vain 13
 - B. Divine conscience restrains 14
 - C. Divine conundrum 15
 - D. Divine design 16
- III. Our Mentor's Thinking Transformed 17
 - A. Changes our perspective our nemesis 18-20
 - B. Change our perspective on ourselves 21-22
 - C. Changes our distress into joy 23-27
 - D. Changes our mission 28

Implementation:

Read this Psalm for yourself. Then sit in the presence of the Lord and ask Him to help you view our contemporary experiences through the lens of His character and His Word.

The next time you see the news and read about an incident that is heart-sickening, first pray for the victims that they can see their experience through God's character and Word. Second pray for the perpetrators that they will listen to the image of God within them, stop suppressing that truth and repent.

Examine your own heart and ask the Lord to show you where you may be guilty of being a perpetrator of injustice, unfair business practices, and/or prejudice. Listen and repent.
